Newsletter from Head Teacher to Parents

Issue 5 Autumn Term
Thursday 10th November 2016

Dear Parents,

This year I am pleased to announce that the Allonby School Christmas Production will be "The Landlords Cat". The children have all been given their parts. As we are only small in numbers it is always really difficult to find a production that can be realistically performed by our small numbers. It therefore has to offer limited speaking roles both in number and in the amount of dialogue. Traditionally we offer the older children the roles containing the most dialogue which sometimes can be narration roles but we have endeavoured to extend some of the roles from the published script to ensure that all children are provided with an opportunity to speak on the stage and in some cases to sing either solo or in a small group scenario. A lot of work goes into ensuring that the children enjoy the "journey" that is undertaken to reach production day and that they and the audience enjoy the performances. These will take place on Wednesday 14th December at 1.30p.m and 6.30p.m. I look forward to welcoming you all to one or both of the productions on that day.

Regards
David Owen

Elf @ the Carnegie Theatre, Workington

Next Friday the 18th of November the whole school are going to see the production of Elf at the Carnegie theatre being put on by 'Spotlight' - the Junior section of Maryport Amateur Operatic and Dramatic Society. The children will be leaving school directly after lunch and will not return into school until approximately 3.40p.m.

This trip is being funded by the APFA (Allonby Parent Fundraising Association). Our very grateful thanks to all the parents involved in this who recently organised the bingo event and for those who attended.

We wish Shannon, Kate and Mrs Robinson (Director) all the very best—Break a leg guys!!!!!!

Christmas Shoebox Appeal

Please bring in your shoeboxes as soon as possible. We already have 6 in the reception area, but I would love it if we could make it up to at least 10. The boxes are being picked up from school on Tuesday 15th of November.

If you need another leaflet detailing what can be put in a shoebox and giving you a label, please see me.
